Improvements

Quickly Locate The Publication You Need*

List views are now available for publications giving you the ability to see critical information like the publication name, description, and associated tags without having to open up the asset details. Easily toggle between the list view and grid view for maximum flexibility.
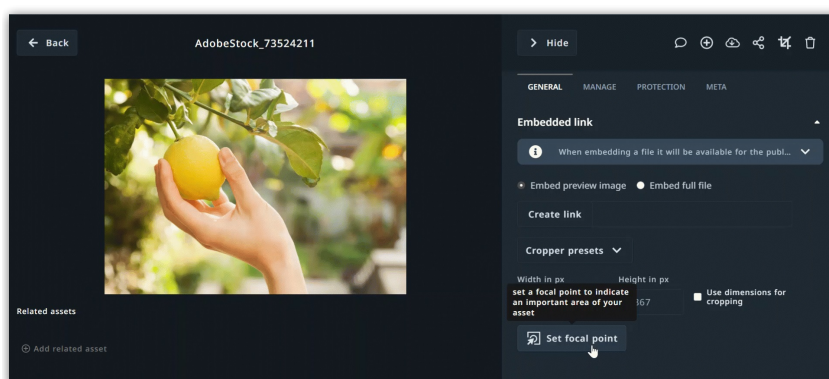

*Available to customers with Create & Publish

Easier Display of Cover Images

No more cropping images to ensure that your Brand Guide* & Collection cover images are showing what you wish to highlight. Easily choose the focal point (https://lytho.knowledgeowl.com/help/focal-points) of an image to automatically display your image the way you wish throughout Lytho DAM, no matter the specs.

*Available to customers with Brand Center

Better Tag Organization

Within Lytho's list views, tags are now alphabetized, making it easier to identify the tags associated with an asset.
